

WWLHIN invitation

You are Invited!

The Waterloo Wellington Local Health Integration Network (WWLHIN) will host a series of information sessions to update residents on the draft findings and recommendations of the Rural Health Care Review. Through a collaborative planning approach, an overall vision for the provision of rural health care services in the WWLHIN is being developed.

The Rural Health Working Group, that includes doctors and staff from local hospitals, long-term care homes, family health teams and other health service providers, along with community representatives, has led the Rural Health Care Review process. The information sessions are a follow-up to the community sessions held from January - April, 2009.
